Application Format Guide

N.B. Please provide two copies of your proposal, one in Word and one PDF. Title both your files with your project working-title and your own name/s.

The BxNU Citizens' Jury Commission:
A Public-Interest Arts Project on Video/Computer Gaming

Name/s of Applicants:

Postal Address:

Phone Number:

Email address:

Project Working Title and Short Summary (maximum 100 words):

Names, institutional positions, and contact details of two referees:

Referee 1

Referee 2

Biographical Summary of Applicant/s (approximately 500 words per applicant):
NB Biographical information provided may be published online by BxNU

Project Proposal (maximum 1500 words):
NB Project information may be published online by BxNU

Outline Budget:

You may add up to ten images to support your proposal in a PDF document including the above information:
NB Images in support of applications may be published online by BxNU

General Terms and Conditions

Late submissions will not be accepted.

Information supplied by applicants in proposals should not be commercially sensitive or confidential in nature.

Full references will be required from referees before any funds are released to the successful applicant/s.

The BxNU Citizen's Jury, whose decision is final, has the right to clarify any issues which may arise during the course of selection.

Project creators will retain ownership of their work but copyright permissions will be provided so that all, or part of a project can be represented in aforementioned BXNU exhibition at the Baltic Arts Centre in Newcastle.

This public-interest commission is part of an inter-university research project entitled The Spirit of Fascism in the Arts and the Prospects for Cultural Democracy (Testing a Randomised Jury Model). The research team will require copyright permissions for associated publications. The inclusion of the commissioned project in the exhibition and associated publications does not prohibit project creators from publishing, distributing, or showing their work at any time or in any other public arena.

The successful applicant will be issued a contract. Template contract models with annotated guidance will be provided.